Greeting from the historical sites of the founding of our nation, the historical sites of Williamsburg and Jamestown, Virginia. We are having a wonderful time with family and the celebration of a high school graduation and our granddaughters farewell prior to serving a mission in the Ukraine. We even went and picked blue berries and made jam. How can it get any better.

June is a busy month for us all, but the work must go on. Beginning this month we once again had a wonderful meeting. The only element missing was our President Chris who had to endure the wonderful weather and climate of southern California. We hope you had a great time. In his absence Mike Reed conducted and showed his warmth and skill as he took the helm.

Kent Lott

Our guest was Kent Lott the publisher of the Pioneer Magazine. He gave a wonderful review of the history of the magazine and brought past copies, going back to its beginning and showed the progress and improvements made. He concluded with the current issue covering the history of northern Arizona and the next issue regarding pioneer gardens. He brought with him his wife Iris. She grew up in Greensboro, North Carolina where I served my mission. My companion and I would often have Sunday dinner with her wonderful family. Prior to Kent's talk we were favored with a cello solo by Dick Fox. He played A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief as sung by John Taylor at the request of the Prophet Joseph Smith in the Carthage Jail and compared it to the one we sing today arranged by Ebenezer Beesley. To hear it was very touching and rewarding. Thank you Dick.

Mike Reed

July's meeting will follow our tradition. LaVon Day has once again arraigned for the Day's of 47 Royalty to come and speak and share their talent. LaVon sends the following information:

Following intense preparations over three days, judges deliberations produced three lovely and talented women to represent The Days of 47. Queen

Malissa Richardson (center) is an Early Childhood Education major at Brigham Young University. She is a child advocate in Utah's fight against pornography, speaking to middle and high school students about the dangers of this epidemic. She has enjoyed piano, ballet, the arts, and public speaking.

First Attendant Chelsea Alley (left) has been dancing for twenty years and as a student at Brigham Young University, she has performed with and choreographed for the Dance Ensemble. She has volunteered with "Hoofbeats to Healing", "Friday's Kids", "Best Buddies" and "Youth Linc".

Days of 47 Royalty

Lizzy Davis, Second Attendant (right), is working toward a Bachelor of Arts Major in music with a double emphasis in piano performance and pedagogy. At East High she was the captain of the swim team, played water polo, soccer and ran track. She plans to be a collaborative artist with large ensembles as well as a vocal coach.

The Queen and Attendants receive scholarships from the Days of 47, Inc. The contestants are judged on the basis of leadership and community involvement, along with poise, appearance, character, and citizenship experience. The Pageant is produced by the International Society Daughters of Utah Pioneers. The three Royalty members reign over all The Days of '47 events including a Pops Concert, Family Festival, five parades and a Rodeo during the month of July. You may schedule them to visit your group by contacting the royalty advisor listed above.

You won't want to miss this wonderful evening and bring a friend, relative, or a potential member. We welcome everyone.

Well the trek is coming close and it is time to give you more information. LaVon, our chairman, supplies the following information.

Date: Thursday, August 1, 2013 Total cost $45.00 per person.

Place: Meet at "This is the Place Monument"

Time: 7:45 a.m. until approximately 8:00 p.m.

Directions: Enter the first parking lot at This is the Place Monument. We will show those going on the trek where to park and load the bus.

At 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. We will travel to Fort Bridger where we will visit and tour the historic sites and listen to presentations from our tour guides, Glen Rawson and Dennis Lyman.

3:00 - 6:00 p.m. -- Return from Fort Bridger to This is the Place Monument, visiting historic sites along the route.

6:30 -- Cordon Bleu dinner catered in the Pack House at This is the Place Monument headquarters. Final questions and visit with our tour guides. (Bring your questions about the pioneer trek from Nauvoo to Utah.)

We will eat lunch at Fort Bridger at the time the members of the trek select. Please bring your own lunch. We will have room for coolers, etc.

This will be a great trek. We look forward to sharing this time together.

Be sure to put this event on the calendar and if you haven't signed up, so do now. Contact David Smith for reservations and to pay your money.

We welcome our newest member, Paul Wood. Extend a welcoming hand of fellowship.

As a concluding comment, if you haven't read the Trail Marker, do so. There is some very important information in the current edition and it is a wonderful newsletter. There are three easy ways to get to the Trailmarker: 1. from the SUP website sonsofutaHPioneers.org or .com; from our website, supslc.org ; or <http://tiny.cc/4driyw>. Try it you will like it!

In this copy there is some very important information regarding a special event to be held at Pioneer Village. The emphasis will be on families and recruitment of members. Concluding the event will be a presentation and talk by Elder Russell Ballard. You won't want to miss it.

There will be a special category for young families with the opportunity for them to receive the Pioneer magazine, so invite your family, neighbor and friends to join you.
