

SONS OF UTAH PIONEERS

Salt Lake City Chapter Newsletter

Our next meeting: Thursday, June 5, 2014

Dinner—6:00 PM at Chuck-A-Rama

Meeting 7:15 PM at 10th Ward, 4th South and 8th East

Our June program will be yet another very special and memorable experience for all! Joining us to speak will be a renowned writer, columnist, historian and pre-eminent blogger, Ardis E. Parshall. Author and coauthor of several critically acclaimed books on LDS history, including “Mormonism: A Historical Encyclopedia, she is known for her tenacity, energy, humor and respected intelligence in gathering verifiable information that adds measurably to the reading experience of LDS historical tomes. Her blog at ‘KeepAPitchinin.org’ is a must-read for those desiring to stay well-informed about a multiplicity of LDS stories; past, present and even prognosticating the future alike.

Please feel free to invite members of your High Priests group and Elder’s quorums by appropriately sharing with them a copy of our Salt lake City chapter’s newsletters and consider, with permission, placing a copy of the Newsletter on your ward and/or stake’s bulletin board. You could also share the links to our Salt Lake City chapter (supslc.org) and the National SUP ([www.sonsof Utahpioneers.org](http://www.sonsof Utahpioneers.org)) websites.

We can and must be focused on recruiting our many younger brothers, who might be looking for a monthly special 'date night' with their companions. By joining our ranks we will all reap the blessings of a wonderful experience plus demonstrate our obedience to our Prophet's admonition to continue courting our special and significant others. If you have any questions please feel free to consult with any of the officers listed below.
